THE PURPOSE: The purpose of the Foundation as delineated in the Last Will and Testament of Robert G. Milroy, deceased, was to encourage agriculturally-minded high school graduates who are residents of Logan County, Ohio, desirous of securing advanced agriculture education or an agriculturally-related field in any Ohio educational institution through loaning funds from the income of the Foundation to such graduates. These loans are to be secured by notes, without interest, payable within four (4) years after graduation. On an annual basis, the trustees will evaluate whether part of the loan may be forgiven as scholarship, based on the current financial status of the Foundation. The student must maintain fulltime academic status in order to qualify for the maximum loan amount per academic year.
