- Prepare some questions yourself to take to your 4-H meetings to help the rest of your fellow 4-H members prepare for the judging process and interviews.
- Lead a Nutrition Workshop for your club members.
- Arrange to meet with a Veterinarian or other Equine Specialist that could help with information on Equine Nutrition.
- Visit an Animal Feed facility to learn about the different types of feeds available commercially.
- Research websites or Libraries about different types of feeds and forages for Equine.
